The Six Principles of Leadership

1. Self Mastery – You must first master yourself before you can expect to lead others.
2. Focus – Focus and determination trump brains and brawn every time.
3. Power with People – Managers exercise power over people; leaders exercise power with people.
4. Persuasive Communication – Others tell, leaders sell.
5. Execution – Your success depends on your IQ (Implementation Quotient)—your ability to get things done.
6. Giving – Leaders focus more on what they give than on what they get.

At the end of the day, leaders are characterized by their legacy, not their resume.

“Leadership doesn’t make a difference—leadership is the difference.”
